

Me being the student of the prestigious Shriharasra university, I am grateful for the supportive environment of the staff of our college, their dedication to teaching is what used to make us more interested in learning. The college has well-equipped laboratories, which are well maintained. Hence, provide us with excellent opportunities for practical learning. The overall college facilities are outstanding, providing excellent environment for student's growth.

Saumya Joshi
5422201033