

FACULTY RESEARCH & PUBLICATION INITIATIVES

The Faculty of Business Studies, Department of BBA, Sharnbasva University, Kalaburagi, has a strong research focus, with faculty members publishing research papers in various reputable journals. These publications showcase the faculty's expertise in business, management, and related fields. The university's research endeavors are geared towards contributing to the body of knowledge in business and management. Faculty members have published papers in esteemed journals, demonstrating their research capabilities. The department encourages research and publication, fostering a culture of academic excellence. By publishing research papers, faculty members share their findings with the academic community, enhancing the university's reputation. The Faculty of Business Studies' research output reflects its commitment to advancing knowledge in business and management. Some of the research papers published by the faculty members have been recognized and cited in various academic forums. The department's research activities are a testament to its dedication to academic excellence. The Faculty of Business Studies continues to produce high-quality research, contributing to the university's academic standing. Research publications by the faculty members are an essential part of the department's academic endeavors. Some of the papers' details are as listed below.

	