I am grateful for the enriching experience at Sharnbasva University, in Computer Science and Engineering department. With the support of the faculty and my own gang of friends, I had an incredible journey of learning, sharing knowledge, and exploring real-world problems through NSS. Some lines about college: As I look back on my time at Sharnbasava University – Computer Science Department, I am filled with immense gratitude and pride. This institution has been more than just a place of learning — it has been a place of transformation, discovery, and growth.

The guidance of dedicated faculty, the support of my peers, and the countless opportunities to explore and innovate have shaped me into the person I am today. Every lecture, every project, and every discussion added a layer to my journey — preparing me not just for a career, but for life.

Though I've now stepped beyond the campus gates, the values, memories, and lessons from college will always remain close to my heart. I leave not just with a degree, but with a lifetime of inspiration.

Thank you, Computer Science Department, and my dear faculties for being the foundation of my future.
