The Faculty of Music, Sharnbasva University, Kalaburagi, successfully organized a Three-Day International Conference on Research in Hindustani Music from 28th to 30th November 2022. This prestigious event brought together eminent scholars, musicologists, performers, and researchers from across the region and beyond to discuss and explore the depth and diversity of Hindustani music traditions.

🌟 About the Conference:

The conference was organized under the leadership of the Organizing Committee led by Prof. Revayya Vastradmath, Dean, Faculty of Music, with co-coordinators Prof. Shanmukh Patil, Prof. Kavita Mathapti, and Prof. Prashant Vastradmath.

The sessions covered a wide range of topics including:

- Development of Khayal and Dhrupad Gharanas
- Origin and Evolution of Saptak
- Different Gharan's of Tabla and Playing Style
- Different Aspects of Research in Hindustani Music
- Role of Shruti in Performance
- Violin instrument as a solo and accompaniment
- Importance of Laya In Hindustani Music

Each session featured a keynote resource person, a presiding chair, and a rapporteur, ensuring academic depth and structured discussion. Resource persons included esteemed names such as:

- Prof. Gururaj Dandapur
- Dr. Rachayya Hiremath
- Dr. Krishnamurthy Bhatt
- Dr. Mallikarjun Taralgatti
- Prof. Rajeev Hiremath
