

Guest Performance by Eminent Artist at the Department of Music

Padma Shri Pandit M. Venkatesh Visits Department of Music, Sharnbasva University

The Department of Music, Sharnbasva University, Kalaburagi, was honored to host Padma Shri Pandit M. Venkatesh on the occasion of a special musical event held recently. The celebrated Hindustani vocalist captivated the audience with a soul-stirring Hindustani classical vocal performance, which also featured Vachanas set to music.

The event was graced by Dr. Niranjan Nisty, Vice Chancellor, Sharnbasva University, who attended as the Chief Guest. Also present on the dais were Prof. Revayya Vastradmath, Dean, Department of Music, and Dr. Mallikarjun Police Patil, Research Guide, Department of Music.

During the event, Dr. Mallikarjun Police Patil delivered a heartfelt speech, sharing his deep insights into music as well as his personal memories and childhood struggles in learning music under the guidance of Pandit K.S. Hadapad. His reflections added a rich emotional dimension to the program.

The event was skillfully anchored by Prof. Shanmukh Patil, whose engaging presentation ensured smooth proceedings throughout.

The success of the event was made possible through the dedicated efforts of Prof. Kavita Mathpati and Prof. Prashant Vastradmath, whose support and coordination were instrumental.

This memorable evening not only enriched the students and faculty musically but also provided them with a rare opportunity to witness the artistry of a legendary musician up close.

