World Music Day Celebration

The Department of Music, Sharnbasva University, Kalaburagi, celebrated World Music Day on 23rd June 2024 with a vibrant musical gathering featuring distinguished guests, artists, and faculty members.

The event was inaugurated in the presence of Dr. Shivanandana, Dean, Department of Journalism and Mass Communication, Sharnbasva University, who served as the Chief Guest.

Renowned Hindustani vocalist Dr. Swapnil Chaphekar, Assistant Professor, Department of Music and Fine Arts, Central University of Karnataka, Kalaburagi, was invited as the Guest Artist. He presented a soulful Hindustani classical recital, which included the vachana "Akka Kelavva", offering a profound blend of melody and devotion.

Dr. Chaphekar was accompanied by Prof. Revayya Vastradmath on Harmonium and Prof. Prashant Vastradmath on Tabla, whose accompaniment enriched the performance and captivated the audience.

On this occasion, Prof. Prashant Vastradmath also delivered a brief address on the significance of World Music Day, highlighting the power of music as a universal language that connects cultures and communities.

The event witnessed the presence and support of Dr. Mallikarjun Police Patil and Prof. Kavita Mathpati, Chairperson of the Department of Music, who extended their best wishes and appreciation to all participants and attendees.

The celebration concluded on a note of gratitude and reflection, marking the day as a memorable tribute to the spirit of music
