ONE DAY SEMINAR CONDUCTED ON "A Comprehensive Seminar on GATE Preparation Strategies" ORGANIZED BY SHARNBASVA UNIVERSITY ON 02/02/2024

Encouraging prefinal-year students to appear for the Graduate Aptitude Test in Engineering (GATE) examination can significantly benefit their academic and career prospects. Here we organize Awareness Campaigns like seminars and information sessions to educate prefinal-year students about the importance and benefits of appearing for the GATE exam. Highlight the career opportunities, higher education options, and financial incentives associated with a good GATE score.

A One-Day Seminar on "A Comprehensive Seminar on GATE Preparation Strategies" was organized by Sharnbasva University on 2nd February 2024. The seminar focused on GATE preparation strategies.

The speaker, Mr. K. Nagashetty, Scientific Officer from Aerospace Engineering at IISc Bengaluru, provided awareness about the GATE Exam to the students, which proved helpful in choosing a career path after completing undergraduate studies. The seminar took place at Doddappa Appa Sabha Mantap on the Sharnbasva University Campus in Kalaburagi on 2nd February 2024, and a total of 550 students participated.

The program commenced with the introduction and felicitation of guests, including Mr. K. Nagashetty from IISc Bengaluru. He aimed to motivate the youth of the region to join premier services in the country. In a short span of time, awareness about preparation strategies for GATE has been spread.

Initially, Mr. K. Nagashetty covered the introductory part, providing a basic idea about the GATE Exam. Following this, he delivered a detailed lecture on how to prepare for the GATE Exam, including information about the exam itself, tips related to careers in government sectors, the syllabus, subjects, exam procedures, and strategies for cracking the exam. He also addressed myths and facts related to the GATE Exam. Students from the 5th semester of both FET Co-education and Women's College participated actively from various departments including Computer Science and Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Electronics & Communication Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, and Civil Engineering.
