A One-Day Seminar on "GATE Interview Prep: Transitioning from Exam to PSUs/IITs" was organized by Sharnbasva University on 1st February 2025. The seminar focused on GATE preparation strategies.

The speaker, Dr. Satish A Patil, Professor at IISc Bengaluru, provided awareness about the GATE Exam to the students, which proved helpful in choosing a career path after completing undergraduate studies. The seminar took place at Seminar Hall, FETW, CSE Department at the Sharnbasva University Campus in Kalaburagi on 1st February 2025, and a total of 250 students participated.

The program commenced with the introduction and felicitation of guests, including Dr. Satish A Patil from IISc Bengaluru. He aimed to motivate the youth of the region to join premier services in the country. In a short span of time, awareness about preparation strategies for GATE has been spread.

Initially, Dr. Satish A Patil covered the introductory part, providing a basic idea about the GATE Exam. Following this, he delivered a detailed lecture on how to prepare for the GATE Exam, including information about the exam itself, tips related to careers in government sectors, the syllabus, subjects, exam procedures, and strategies for cracking the exam. He also addressed myths and facts related to the GATE Exam. Students from the 5th semester of both FET Co-education and Women's College participated actively from various departments including Computer Science and Engineering, Electrical Engineering, Electronics & Communication Engineering, Mechanical Engineering, and Civil Engineering.
