Description of Activity	Helen Keller’s birth day was on 27th June 2023 and we remembered the life and achievement of Helen Keller ,a women who overcame blindness and deafness . During this event, life story of Helen Keller in the form of singing which inspired the students of blind school to make a difference in life in spite of physical challenges they have. Today, she is considered one of the United States’ most notable humanitarians, taking a public stance on a variety of social issues from women’s suffrage to the treatment of people with disabilities. Thus this narration enlightened many students in the school to become a role model like Helen Keller. Further, water cans ,clothes ,refreshment were given as a token of gratitude to the dwellers of blind school. Few of Government Blind Boys High School staffs, and well wishers joined the event and encouraged the effort together by our students. The student’s participation in extension activities for sensitizing the social issues like visiting blind school and achieving holistic development by having a concern to differently abled students. Developing and fostering these budding engineers to establish a society which encourages these less privileged people to be a part of main of the system. Hence an appreciation letter was received from the authorities of Government Blind School for Boys, Kalaburagi.
